

Date: 29.02.2008

On 29.02.2008, information took place in the media, regarding Airports Ground Handling Services Inc. (HAVAŞ) being offered to public at the end of this year, and strategic partnerships being acquired beforehand were attributed to Mr Sani Şener, the CEO of our company. There is no decision made by our Company Board of Directors regarding the public offering for the Airports Ground Handling Services Inc (HAVAŞ). Furthermore, there are no agreements made nor documents signed in this respect. Havaş initial public offering is a matter that is included in the medium term plans of our Company.

The same article also covers news about us taking over the Pilsen Airport in the Czech Republic and the Lahr Airport in Germany. As we have explained in our clarification of 17.10.2007, our company has started talks regarding partnership with Babcock & Brown European Investments S.a.r.l for the operation of Pilsen Airport, and at this stage, the discussions have not yet been concluded. Our company is also interested in the Lahr Airport, of which, again, Babcock & Brown European Investments S.a.r.l is a partner of, and there are no actions that require a clarification at this moment.

When there are developments about the matters mentioned in those news articles, our Company shall notify the public.

We hereby state that the above clarifications are in compliance with the principles set forth in the Decree No 39 Series No VIII of the Capital Market Board, that it fully reflects the information we have received in this respect, that the information is compliant with the books, records and our documents, that we have accomplished our best in order to obtain the accurate and correct information, and that we are responsible for this clarification hereby.
